The journey is often challenging and full of obstacles, yet can also be exciting as you make connections with dynamic, creative and like-minded people. Our Learning Centre is aimed at providing high quality, on-site training in C# for different skill levels, as well as providing introductory training in.NET. We are a client orientated environment, where our qualified trainers are responsive and quick to adapt to your needs and offer individual attention. We pride ourselves on providing a professional service at affordable rates and with a personal touch. We also offer tailored, on-site classroom training on C# (individual, small group and large group). Our Team Philip Thomas President Phil has over 30 years of experience in software development, building significant software systems, both at a senior and management level in a variety of industries, including financial and infrastructure services. In addition to his commercial experience, he has also served in the Royal Air Force and Royal Navy. Phil has also served with the British Army, having held roles including combat engineer in Bosnia, The Falklands and Northern Ireland, as well as managing a multinational software team. Having set up a number of software companies, Phil has a thorough understanding of business requirements and project management. Phil is a Microsoft Distinguished Technology Fellow, holds a UK PTC Silver Award and is a Microsoft Certified Solutions Expert in Visual Studio.NET, SQL Server, SharePoint and Office. Between 2003 and 2007

Phil was the host of the long running software design podcast IDEAS STREET. Phil has been a Judge for the UK Microsoft Mentor program and for the UK Microsoft MVP program. Bryan Binns Bryan has worked in the .NET Developer community for over ten years and is an experienced trainer, having run courses for the Microsoft Developer Network and been a regular presenter at conferences including TechEd and Tech-Ed-Europe.
