Just a guy trying to enjoy life. 4.4.13 Main Menu A lot of people might know of my health issues. I am now one of the oldest youngest men in my family. What I want to share with you is the story of my grandfather's life. He was in to diabetes, heart disease, stroke, and other cardiac conditions. I was raised around his health and felt sorry for him. He was a loving father and grandfather, a great husband and most importantly a great man. The story behind how he lived is what I want to share with you. My grandfather was born in the late 1800's. He was 18 years old when he married my grandmother. They had 9 children, 4 girls and 5 boys. They all died before my grandmother. My grandfather grew to be a very religious man. I knew he walked to church every Sunday and he loved to read the bible. He was a very caring person and he made sure the others in his family loved him. Unfortunately, he didn't love himself. When he started to get sick he was ashamed of his diabetes and hid it from my grandmother and his children. He would take meds like he was supposed to but he wouldn't treat his diabetes properly. He never had an angina attack. I am a proud man. I was the first in my family to graduate high school. He wanted to give me a nice vacation when I finished high school, in 1975, which he was able to do. He was so happy when I graduated. My grandparents and their children lived in a small town called Stubbville, TX. It was right on the Texas border between Louisiana and Arkansas. This small town was about 4 blocks wide and 4 blocks long. I'll never forget my first night there. My grandparents rode me in a horse buggy, a VW van, and even the car (wife). I had my first professional photography job in Stubbville. I got paid $25 to take the church's Christmas card. It was the first job I've ever had so I was excited. I had to spend about 6 months 6d1f23a050
